The directors of The Classics Labels make their debut appearance at the Wigmore Hall. Victoria, Sebastian and Paul are also artistic directors of Clarinet, Cello and Brass Classics and are joined in performance by pianist Juliet Edwards. They have established themselves as important interpreters of solo and chamber music repertoire. Their experience covers a diverse range of styles and genres; from early music played on original instruments through to new music, commissions and performances for blockbuster film scores. This musical collaboration will give the audience a unique insight into the worlds of the clarinet, cello, trumpet and piano; an exciting mix of instruments that is reflected in a superb programme of music designed to engage, entertain and stimulate. All performances are introduced in a relaxed and informal style as the performers guide the listener through this colourful and effervescent repertoire.
